

An- Ting & Carnival of Animals Piano Recital

08 Nov 2020 Sunday 3:30 pm

Hosted by Christ Church North Finchley
620 High Road, London N12 0NU

<http://www.christchurchnorthfinchley.co.uk>

A charitable event concert with free entry. Please book your seat in the church in advance for reason of COVID-19 security. The concert will also be live streamed on Zoom/ youtube. We can send you the link once you book with us.

Please contact:
christchurchfinchley@btconnect.com

Tel: 020 8445 2532

pixtastock.com - 40750871

Programme

Saint-Saens:
The Carnival of the Animals

An-Ting:
Music Diary during the Pandemic Time

London Night
Plague Time
Last June
Ping Pong Dance
Hoxton Street
Past Tense
31 August

An-Ting Chang is a concert pianist, composer, theatre director and currently the Artistic Director of Chinese Arts Now(CAN) which is a non-profit arts organisation regularly supported by the Arts Council England producing contemporary Chinese performing arts. An-Ting's background is a unique mix of science and art with a degree in Chemistry from National Taiwan University and a MMus and PhD in performance from the Royal Academy of Music.

An-Ting has performed regularly as a concert pianist at venues such as Southbank Centre, LSO St Luke's, Newbury Spring Festival, Deal Festival, Cheltenham Town Hall, and the Akademie der Künste Berlin (Academy of Arts) and appeared in radios, such as BBC3, BBC London, Monocle.

She also created works by combining music with other forms. Her recent work, Augmented Chinatown 2.0 (an app play for AR, music and drama) is available on App Store and Google Play) and has been critically acclaimed.

Website: www.antingchang.com

